Is this for me?

Active Adventure
Intensity 4 of 5

Built for trekkers. Most days are spent on foot through Tavan Bogd and remote valleys, while camels carry the gear.

Malchin climb requires reasonably good fitness levels. About 6–8 hours on your feet, with around 800 m of uphill walking on loose rock. No technical skills or climbing equipment needed.

Guides speak English, French and German.

DAY BY DAY

10-Day Itinerary in the Altai Mountains

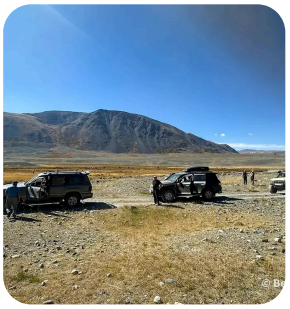

DAY 01

Fly to Ölgii & Drive to Tavan Bogd Ranger Station

Take a morning flight from Ulaanbaatar to Ölgii, where we pick you up at the airport and take care of everything. After brunch at a halal restaurant we drive west for 5–6 hours in specially equipped 4WD vehicles, across mountain ranges and rivers, to the Tavan Bogd Ranger Station at 3,000 m. Visit Tuvan families and settle into traditional gers.

Stay: Traditional gers Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

You need to fly to Ölgii. Domestic flights are not included, but we're happy to help you book them.

DAY 02

Horseback Ride to Tavan Bogd Base Camp

Explore Mongolia the way nomads do, on horseback. No riding experience needed: our wranglers pick a suitable horse and guide you, and experienced riders can ride on their own. It's a relaxed 5–6 hour ride to Tavan Bogd Base Camp, with plenty of stops, while camels carry the gear. Pass pristine alpine lakes fed by snowmelt and explore the Potanin Glacier.

Stay: Camping tents Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

03

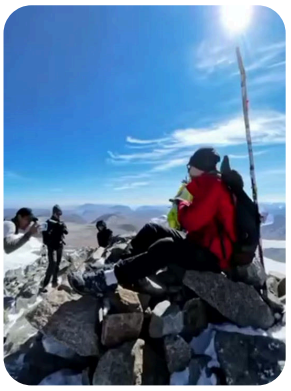

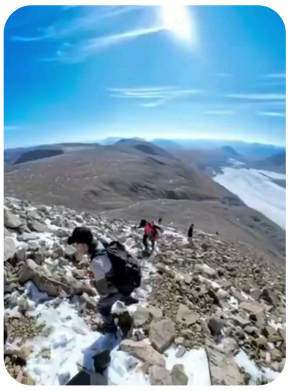

Climb Malchin Peak (4,050 meters)

Climb Malchin Peak, about 4,050 m (13,287 ft), one of the five peaks of the Tavan Bogd massif. The climb needs no technical skills or climbing equipment, but a good fitness level is expected. Take in the sweeping panoramic views from the top, where you can see the convergence of four countries, then descend back to Base Camp.

Malchin climb requires reasonably good fitness levels. Expect a long day: about 6–8 hours on your feet, with around 800 m of uphill walking on loose rock, in thin mountain air. If you can comfortably hike uphill for most of a day with short breaks, you're ready for it.

Stay: Camping tents Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

DAY
04

Ride Back to Ranger Station

Ride from Base Camp through the Milky River Valley, the river rushing beside you, loud and wild. The trail is easy: ride or walk, as you like.

Stay: Traditional gers Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

DAY
05

Trekking in Takhilt (Death) Pass

Trek from the Ranger Station toward Bear Valley via Takhilt Pass, the only route linking the high mountain zone to the lake region. Camp overnight in Khar Ayrag Valley.

Stay: Camping tents Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

DAY
06

Cross Death Pass to Bear Valley

Cross Takhilt Pass and stop at the stunning Heart Lake, then descend into Bear Valley through wide open landscapes. Camp in the valley.

Stay: Camping tents Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

07

Trek Deep into Remote Tsagaan Us Valley

Trek deeper into Tsagaan Us Valley through remote mountain scenery, reaching the halfway point of the valley by afternoon.

Stay: Camping tents Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

08

Trek to Tsagaan Us River Junction & Visit a Kazakh Family

Trek downhill to the Tsagaan Us River junction, where the driving team meets us. Drive to a Kazakh nomadic family for a cultural evening: a traditional Five Fingers feast with neighbours and songs.

Stay: Traditional yurts Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

DAY
09

Hike to Baga Turgen Waterfall. Meet the Eagle Hunters

Hike to Baga Turgen Waterfall, then learn eagle hunting, a tradition passed down the generations. Watch demonstrations, call the eagle to land on your arm and take photos in traditional clothing. Drive back to Ölgii, check in at the hotel and enjoy a Kazakh family concert in the evening.

Stay: Hotel in Ölgii Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

DAY
10

Fly Back to Ulaanbaatar

After breakfast we drop you at Ölgii airport for your flight back to Ulaanbaatar.

Meals: Breakfast

Domestic flights are not included, but we're happy to help you book them.
